RED ROUGH SKIN.

If there is anything a woman is proud of or rather delights in it's a smooth, clear, blemishless skin. Sometimes this is a little hard to produce, but a great many of our women customers are speaking words of praise for

Cream Of ROSE AND ALMOND

They are safe in doing this, as it is an ideal skin food. For chaps, cracks, rough skin or any irritation of the skin it is very effective. You will find it just what you've been loooking for.

NO CLUE TO ROBBERY.

High Point People Are on the Lookout to Pay a Reward.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

High Point, April 26—Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock an accident was narrowly averted on the side track near the High Point Furniture factory. A country man in a wagon drawn by a horse was near the track when the shifting engine came along and struck the vehicle, knocking the wagon, occupant and horse several feet from the track. Fortunately man and beast escaped with slight injury. The wagon was slightly disfigured.

Postmaster Snow has received the new stamp books which have lately been issued for the convenience of the public. The stamps are of 2-cent denomination and are furnished in books of 12, 24, 48 and 96 cents respectively, with an advance of one cent on each book to cover cost of manufacture. They are very convenient and then you can carry them in your pocket without any fear of sticking.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Pretty Ceremony Near Holt's Chapel Church—The Contracting Parties.

Proximity Bureau.

There was a very pretty marriage at the home of Jas. H. Buchanan, the father of the bride, near Holt's Chapel church last night, Mr. Lee A. Jackson and Miss Roxie Buchanan being the contracting parties. There were a number of friends and relatives present to wish for them a long and happy life.

The bride was gracefully attired and carried a bouquet of beautiful flowers. After the ceremony was performed the company repaired to the dining room and there enjoyed a feast of good things. The dining room was tastily decorated for the occasion. After an hour spent in social concourse the company departed, wishing for the young couple much happiness. The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. L. Marsh pastor of Proximity M. E. Church.

The bride and groom are very popular in their community and have a host of friends that will ever be interested in their welfare.

BOERS FLEEING FROM WEPENER.

THE BRITISH ARE PRESSING FORWARD IN HOT PURSUIT.

French is in Dewetsdorp—Rumor of Baden-Powell's Death—Flogged Women and Sent Them Back

By Wire to the Telegram.

Dewetsdorp, April 25 (Wednesday).—The British columns are pressing forward in hot pursuit of the Boers, who are fleeing from Wepener and Dewetsdorp. The Boer line of retreat to Ladybrand leads through a broken, mountaineous country, favoring concealment. Robert's line of communication is now thoroughly held.

FRENCH IN WEPENER.

Dewetsdorp, April 26.—French entered town this morning with two cavalry brigades. He left camp at daylight and found the Boers holding the hills, which were shelled. The Boers retreated and the cavalry pushed around the position above town, where they were holding Rundle in check. It is reported that six thousand Boers passed through town last night in order to avoid French's attack on their rear.

WHIPPED THE WOMEN.

London, April 26.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts:

"Bloemfontein, April 25. — Good news has been received from Baden-Powell to the tenth. All the wounded are improving. The Boers captured several native women trying to escape from Mafeking. They turned these women back after stripping and flogging them."

This dispatch fails to dispose of the report of Baden-Powell's death, the rumor of which was started that he was either dead or dying of fever on the twelfth.

EXPLOSION IN PRETORIA.

Ten Women Killed and Thirty-Three Other Persons Injured.

By wire to The Telegram.

Pretoria, April 26—There was a serious explosion at the Regbie works, used by the government as an arsenal last night. The walls of the building were destroyed and the structure burned. The shrieks of women and children in the adjoining streets added to the ghastliness of the scene. Ten women were killed and thirty-three persons injured, including Herr Grunberg, the manager of the works. The most important machinery was saved. The cause of the explosion is unknown. Two hundred people were employed, mostly French and Italians.

MRS. WORKMAN'S FUNERAL.

She Had Been a Member of the Church Since Her Thirteenth Year.

The funeral of Mrs. W. W. Workman took place this morning from West Washington Street Baptist church, conducted by Rev Livingston Johnson and Dr. J. C. Rowe, and the body was laid to rest in Green Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Workman was in her 41st year at the time of her death. At the age of thirteen she professed religion, since which time she has been a faithful follower of Christ. In 1875 she was happily married to Mr. W. W. Workman. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Workman came to Greensboro from Roanoke, Virginia, and soon connected themselves with West Washington Street church. Mrs. Workman's health has been such for several years that she could not attend regularly upon the services of the church and this was her chief regret. Though confined at home she felt a keen interest in all the work of the church and rejoiced in its prosperity.

The last time she was away from home it was to attend the woman's prayermeeting. For three months she suffered intensely, but during the whole time not a murmur escaped her lips. She spoke freely of her condition, and expressed her entire willingness to go if it was the Lord's will to take her home. Her membership has been transferred to the church Triumphant.

Sad News for Mrs. Denny.

WILL HEAR THE KENTUCKY CASE

POLITICIANS ARE GATHERING FOR NEXT MONDAY.

Senator Pritchard's Joke About the "Failure" of Pops And Republicans to Fuse.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, April 26—Kentucky politicians are beginning to gather in Washington already, in anticipation of the coming arguments before the Supreme Court of the United States over the Kentucky governorship. The arguments in the most notable political case which has attracted the attention of the Federal Courts since the days of the civil war will be heard on Monday, and will bring to Washington an array of prominent Kentucky men, of both political parties Among those in the city in addition to Governor Taylor and the attorneys of the contesting governor is Senator J. C. S. Blackburn. Both the governor and Senator Blackburn will remain in Washington until the arguments are heard. It is usual for the Supreme Court to announce decisions on Mondays, and it is felt that a decision in this important argument will in all probability be handed down on the Monday following the arguments, which will be the first Monday in May. Of course, the Kentucky situation being so important a one, the the Court may hand down its decision at almost any time after the arguments are concluded. Senator Blackburn stated that he would remain in Washington probably until after the final decision. It is believed that Governor Taylor and his attorneys will also remain.

Senator Blackburn is convinced that the decision of the Supreme Court will be favorable to Beckham, and bases his opinion largely upon the fact that in the state, courts, the Republican judges, or many of them, sided with Democratic justices. The Supreme court will decide the case upon the logical aspects it presents, and not upon the equity rights of any individual or claimant.

Senator Pritchard, who has just returned from a visit to North Carolina, where he went to attend the session of the Federal Court, says that the failure to effect fusion between the Republicans and the Populists, will not injure but will benefit the Republican party of North Carolina. He looks for Republican success this year and for the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment.

The House committee on military affairs has reported favorably the bill to authorize the needed repairs of the graveled or macadamized road from the city of Newbern, North Carolina, to the national cemetery near said city.

On the Quay case the Virginia Senators divided, Daniel voting to seat Quay, and Martin against. Senator Butler voted against, while Pritchard has paired in favor of seating the Ex-Senator.

REV. HARRIOTT'S "DEFLECTION"

The Providence Baptist Church Sets Itself Straight

To the people of Greensboro:

As a committee appointed by Providence Baptist church to set forth our grievances at an article headed in one of our city papers—The Telegram, April 19th inst, "A Disturber Warned," referring to Rev. N. A. Marriott, former pastor of our church, find in said article the following: "It is understood that he is one of the disturbers who were run out of Wilmington in 1898. It leaked out here that he was attempting to organize the negroes for a stand against the white people in the coming election. His efforts were becoming manifest and he became so bold that he referred to his schemes in a prayer meeting service Wednesday night" Rev. Marriott was not run out of Wilmington in 1898; because at that time he was pastor of our church, having been installed September 1898, two months before the Wilmington trouble in November 1898. And neither was Rev. Marriott at the prayer meeting on the Wednesday night referred to, nor did he ever to our personal knowledge make a political reference in any meeting, be never held in Providence church "for a stand against the white people in the coming election." We assure the white people of Greensboro that the members of Providence Baptist church believe wholly in the principle as set forth by said church i. e.: Each church is its own sovereign, and as individual members we believe in individual independence in politics, as in church polity, and exercise it.

Futhermore, the said Rev. Marriott nor any other man, minister or whatever he may be, or claim to be, could not induce us to unite ourselves against the white people of Greensboro and vicinity, for any such purpose. Neither would we have allowed him to attempt any such thing in Greensboro, and especially in our house of divine worship. Now, as to Rev. Marriott, and his absconding from the city: After an impartial, deliberate and prayerful investigation, the members of Providence Baptist church, in special session assembled, were unanimously of the opinion that Rev. N. A. Marriott, the former pastor, for some reasons, best known to himself, and unknown to the church found it necessary to take an unceremonious and an immediate leave of the city of Greensboro, and in order that he might have an apparent excuse for so doing the church has good reasons for the belief that he wrote and addressed to his wife the anonymous letter of which he complained, and which he set up as the cause of his deflection from the church and city. Being of this opinion, the church found it necessary to declare her pastorate vacant—thus discharging Rev. N. A. Marriott as pastor. The church also ordered that the accounts be audited, and any amount found to be due Rev. N. A. Marriott, as pastor, be promptly paid him. The church extends its sympathy and prayers in behalf of her former pastor's wife and family. The church apologizes to the public for this intrusion of its internal matters upon it, by saying that it had been accused in connection with Rev. N. A. Marriott, the then pastor, of holding political meetings breathing conspiracy against the white citizens of Greensboro, which we denounce as untrue and impossible.

Done by order of the church, April 24th, 1900.

The Arch Destroyer.

"He is a mean, sneaking, underhanded element, the moth is," protests John Kendrick Bangs in The Woman's Home Companion. "Fire has a decent sense of the proprieties. Moths have none at all. When fire attacks you, it smokes and crackles and hisses and roars and lets you know in clarion tones that it has come. The moth steals upon you in the dead of night and chews up your best trousers, gorges himself upon your wife's furs, tickles his palate with your swellest flannel golf shirt, munches away upon your handsomest rug, punches holes in your best sofa cushions with his tusks and then silently folds his tent and steals away without so much as a thank you for his meal. For unmitigated meanness commend me to the moth! Alongside of the moth and his nefarious work even a book agent pales into insignificance and an unpaid grocer's bill becomes an absolute pleasure."

Our First Woman Editor.

According to the Hartford Courant, that paper in 1777 was owned and edited and managed by a woman, whose name comes down to modern days as "the Widow Watson." She had "exclusive charge" of the journal. After a couple of years Mrs. Watson married a leading citizen of Hartford, and after that date she no doubt let him advise and assist in the conduct of the paper. But she holds the record for the first woman editor in the country.

INDEPENDENT TICKETS.

The Telegram frankly states its regret that any number of our citizens should see fit to put out a municipal ticket in opposition to the regular nominees of the Democratic primary, whoever they may be. We think that such Democrats as are of the opinion that a movement of this kind will not hurt the party, will find that they have been mistaken.

The need for a party organization in the towns of North Carolina has been demonstrated in the past few years. Under the old system of voting independently there were not near so good town governments in the State as there have been since. Why? Simply because the more responsible and substantial citizens divided their votes on personal preferences, while the element of the population that had some special scheme to work, or who were interested in having certain men in office, voted solidly and put in their men. We know of towns that were ruled by the worst element of their populations for this very reason, and it was only a few years ago, when the Democratic organizations were made, that the matter was improved. This is why, beside the undoubted fact that such opposition will hurt the Democratic party generally, in the present condition of North Carolina politics, that we are in principle opposed to independent tickets.

We congratulate Senator Pritchard on taking so cheerful a view of the failure of the Populists and Republicans to fuse.

Uncle Sam is now stirring round preparatory to begin taking the census for 1900. We understand by this that the last census has been completed.

There is a rumor in Constantinople that Russia will back Turkey if the United States undertakes to enforce the payment of that $90,000 award for missionary property. Of course Russia will do no such thing.

The country is safe. The Senate yesterday passed the agricultural bill carrying $3,000,000, and refused to allow the supply of seeds to be cut down. Seeds are safe for at least another year. We are all playing in luck.

"Long centuries ago," says the Lexington Dispatch, "this country was discovered and populated by a race of white men. These sturdy old pioneers fought Indians on every valley. Step by step they made inroads upon the savage red man of the forest. Slowly, but surely, they pushed the savages back from one camping ground to another." This was an instance in which the "consent of the governed" could not be obtained. By the way, what became of the gentlemen who refused to be governed?

THE UNIVERSITY SUMMER WORK.

Important to Teachers and Those Wishing Instruction.

The seventh session will begin June 12th next and continue for four weeks. The faculty will include more than twenty eminent instructors. There will be daily instruction in the best methods of teaching all of the branches taught in the leading public and private schools, high schools and Academies in the south. Since its establishment six years ago, the University summer school has easily ranked with the best summer schools of the country. The advantages of this year will surpass those of former years.

ANOTHER FORWARD MOVEMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY.

This year for the first time in its history, the University will have a summer term and offer 20 regular University courses.

Many a teacher desiring to pursue an advanced course during his vacation, many a college student who wishes to carry on his studies during the summer months and thus hasten his graduation, and many men and women who can attend college or the University only during June, July and August will learn gladly of this new departure.

Members of the summer school during the four weeks it is in session, may attend the summer term classes free of charge.

Items of State News.

The Carolina and Northwestern Railroad Company, running a narrow guage line from Chester to Lenoir, will change this track into a standard guage and push the road on across the Blue Ridge into Tennessee, building 60 miles of road bed, and penetrating the coal fields. The capital stock has been increased from $360,000 to $2,000,000.

Col. A. M. Waddell, Mayor of Wilmington, will speak at the conference called to meet in New Orleans, May 8, 9, and 10, to discuss the race problem.

A fourteen-year-old lad has been taken in the State Hospital from Hickory for treatment, having become insane as a result of fright from being hazed by other boys.

Col. Julian S. Carr has sent State Chairman Simmons a check for $200 for campaign expenses and in his letter enclosing the check promises to duplicate this amount later during the campaign.

A Hope That May be Realized.

Philadelphia Times.

The eyes of the nation are focused upon New York politics. The efforts of the Republican leaders to force Governor Roosevelt into the second place on the McKinley ticket possess far deeper significance than appears on the possibility of re-electing the gallant colonel. In other words, they believe him stronger in the nation than in the State.

There are many evidences to indicate the truto of this belief. Colonel Roosevelt was not overmastering elected. His name did not set the Empire State aglow with patriotism, as was expected. His career, at first satisfactory to the people, was unsatisfactory to to the boss of the State. Now the conditions are reversed, with a general sacrifice of public confidence. He has proved weak where he was assumed to be strongest. Prior to election every one would have sworn that, in the gubernatorial chair, Roosevelt would be his own master. His strong personality, his record as a police commissioner, his untiring energy as Assistant Secretary of the Navy encouraged this hope; but the State boss finally dominated him and destroyed his independence.

The Republican party of New York is by no means united on Roosevelt. There is a very strong anti Platt sentiment in the party that could be relied upon to support a thoroughly acceptable Democratic candidate, such for example, as Bird S. Coler. This young comptroller has shown the same ability and courage that Robert E. Pattison displayed in Philadelphia. Many signs already point to his availability as a democratic candidate, and against Governor Roosevelt or any other Republican his chances would be promising.

Stinging, burning feet can be done away with at very little cost by the use of a pair of our tread easy shoes made from the kind of leather through which the feet can breathe. You will never know what real foot comfort is until you wear a pair of them.

Letting off a Nabob.

Charity and Children.

The newspapers have laid Mr. Rockefeller out for bossing his pastor, and removing him when he became too offensive. Many caustic lectures have been hurled at John D's head, but we are now informed that he has never been connected with either of the churches whose pastors have lost their jobs, but holds his membership with the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York City, whose pastor is too wise to say ugly things about the President of the Standard Oil Company. It is a pity to spoil this glorious opportunity to draw moral lessons, but we would better stick to facts even if a nabob goes free.

Voting to Keep Down the Price.

Lexington Dispatch.

Senator Clarke is about to lose his seat in the United States Senate, not because he bought his way in but because he paid too much for it. Doubtless many a puppy who opposes him used money in a smaller degree to get where he is. He paid too much and the other fellows, though many of them are guilty of the same offense, are voting rather to keep the price down.

It doesn't make a bill any smaller to file it away.

A sign outside a Lombard street restaurant reads: "Pigs' feet. Walk in."

MANY LIVES SAVED.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever an opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Old friends are sometimes dearest because they generally owe you the most money.

Nell—"Did she marry for love or money?" Belle—"Both." Nell—"How could that be?" Belle—"She loved his money."

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

We believe that Chamberlains's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see how it would affect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Hoax—"You don't have to know much about poker to win." Joax—"No; all you have to know is a good deal."

Because of a 'longshoremen's dispute regarding bosses, the Charles A. Eddy, first of the grain fleet to arrive at Buffalo, N. Y., remains unloaded.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is by an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wisconsin, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous powers of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price fifty cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

The house at Tappan, N. Y., in which Major Andre, the British spy, was confined during the Revolution, is to be turned into a soap factory.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Grissom & Ford ham.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Linn.

Is a genuine specific for diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. No other medicine has had so remarkable a success in curing diseases affecting the heart, liver and lungs, whenever these diseases, as is commonly the case, were caused by "weak stomach" and impure blood. Food imperfectly digested cannot be perfectly assimilated. "Golden Medical Discovery" restores the organs of digestion to perfect working order. Foul blood must result in a foul body. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and increases the activity of the blood-making glands, so increasing the quantity and quality of the blood supply. It has been tried by over half-a-million people. It has cured ninety-eight out of every hundred who have tried it.

White Delivery Wagons have been a distinguishing mark of the Greensboro Steam Laundry for a number of years. Our customers have learned to "look out for the white wagons."

Competitors have seen fit to imitate our wagons, therefore we deem it wise to make a change.

Our wagons are now in the shop. About May 1st they will come out green, our future color. In the mean time would respectfully request our friends and patrons to BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle. To avoid any possible confusion, in futurr our wagons will be lettered;

Cheese In Swiss Families.

The social rank of a family in Switzerland is estimated by the age of its cheese, and the greater the respect due to or the affection for a guest the older is the cheese set before him. There are in each pantry at least as many cheeses as there are boys and girls in the family, for at the birth of every child a cheese is made.

It is first cut into on his or her wedding day, on which festive occasion all the guests partake of a piece of the groom's and the bride's cheese in order to secure for them all earthly thrift and happiness. The rest is served as a token of friendly souvenir and heartfelt mourning after the tomb has closed over his or her earthly career.

Moreover, when a Swiss youth falls in love and wishes to pay court to the girl of his heart he goes to her father and asks permission to share the family dinner next Sunday. This is always granted if he is respectable, for it would be considered a deadly insult to refuse. The anxious question in his mind is, "Will papa bring out the cheese?"

Papa does not usually hurry to relieve his fears, having the family dignity in mind and wishing to proceed with due deliberation. If he is indeed satisfied with the suitor, he at length rises from his seat, goes solemnly to the cupboard, takes down the oldest piece of cheese, splits it and hands a piece to the youth and one to the maiden, and from the moment they have tasted it they are betrothed.

Both Had Been Out.

"The revenue cutters of the United States, as you may know," said an officer of one of them who likes his little joke, "confine their services, which are really invaluable to the government, to the coast, and it is a rare thing indeed for any one of them except those of the Bering sea patrol to venture any distance out to sea. Nor is this rule an unsatisfactory one, for, say what you please about it, sea service is not as pleasant as the novelists and other romancers would have you believe.

"But I am getting off of my story, which applies to the cutter Grant when she was doing duty in New York bay and vicinity. Something had happened to call her down the shore somewhere, and she left the bay one afternoon, and early the next morning, while she was bowling along at about seven knots an hour, she hailed a big four master.

"'What ship is that?' came the cry from the Grant.

"'The Royal Bengal Tiger, 243 days out from Calcutta,' came the reply. 'What ship is that?'

"'Revenue cutter Grant,' was the plaintive answer, 'and we've been out all night.'"—Washington Star.

A Bold Little Bird.

The honeybird is a well known denizen of many parts of the Transvaal. It has the unique peculiarity that it does not fear men and women, but actually flies up to them, uttering a plaintive low note and, flying about their heads, tries to lead them on to the nearest clump of rocks or kopje. The bird knows full well that under a certain rock lies a store of honey, concealed by the cunning bees, and, rock honey being as much esteemed by birds as by human beings, the clever little fellow tries to induce a friendly being with two strong hands to push aside the rock, so that it may get to the honey.

If it succeeds in its object and the traveler on the veldt, attracted by the bird's flutterings to and fro between himself and the rocks, finds the honey, the bird changes its plaintive tone to say, "Thank you very much."

Epitaphs In a Tyrolean Churchyard.

A German traveler has discovered some quaint epitaphs in a Tyrolean cemetery.

On a tombstone in the valley of Tux was this inscription, "In pious remembrance of the honest widow Anna Kriedl, 40 years long." A miller is thus remembered, "In Christian memory of ——, who departed this life without human assistance."

A farmer whose initials only are given and appears to have been the author of his own epitaph has this memorial: "Here rests in God F. K. He lived 26 years as man and 37 years as husband."

On the tomb of a man who fell from a roof and was killed are these words, "Here fell Jacob Hosenknopf from the roof into eternity."

This wail of a desolate husband caps the climax, "Tears cannot bring thee back to life, therefore I weep."

A Good Excuse.

"You wish to be relieved from jury duty, but you haven't given a good reason," said the judge.

"It's public spirit," said the unwilling juryman, "on the score of economy. I have dyspepsia, your honor, and I never agree with anybody. If I go on this jury, there'll be a disagreement, and the court will have to go to the expense of a new trial."

"Excused," said the judge.—Tit-Bits.

He Knows Her.

She was a Washington woman well acquainted in diplomatic circles. Talking about Washington people one day, some one asked her:

"Do you know Senator Blank?"

"Do I know Senator Blank?" she repeated. "Yes, I do know him, and he knows me. He will never forget me. I've trumped his ace when we were partners at whist."—New York Times.

Efficient Cavalrymen.

"Speaking of cavalry," said a veteran officer, "probably the hardiest and most effective cavalry forces the world ever saw were some of the Confederate squadrons in the civil war. Why, Forrest's troops harassing Sherman to the sea used up horses at the rate of 11 per man in a twelvemonth."—Indianapolis News.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington Pa., says, "I have found Ko-Dol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to cure. Howard Gardner.

Spring is being sprung upon us.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help: but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

A SUICIDE IN WILKES.

Took Laudanum and Rolled Off The Mountain—No Cause Assigned.

North Wilkesboro Hustler.

Oliver Moore, a well known and respected citizen of Hunting Creek neighborhood, comitted suicide Friday night.

He told his wife on Thursday evening that he was going to the "Big Rock," which is located on the mountain about a quarter of a mile from his house, and that she would find him there. As he had previously taken a quilt and other things to this place, she inferred that he proposed to hide there. No one had any idea that he contemplated ending his life.

The next morning his wife went to the place designated and was horrified to find him in an unconscious condition at the foot of the rock—about thirty feet. It seems that he had secured two bottles of laudanum. One was empty, but the other had not been uncorked. It seems that he had swallowed the contents of one bottle and either sprang or fell off the rock, as he was bruised in a frightful manner. She secured help and started home with him, but he expired before arriving.

It is not known why he committed the rash deed, as he was a most estimable citizen, and esteemed by all who knew him. We learn that he also preached occasionally.

He leaves a wife and several children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Democratic Primaries.

The Democrats of the city of Greensboro are hereby called to assemble in their ward meetings on Thursday, May 3rd at 8:30 p. m, at the following places:

First ward, Farmers warehouse.
Second ward, Lindsey street graded school house.
Third ward, market house.
Fourth ward, Banner warehouse
Fifth ward, Ross building, 112 Lewis street.
Sixth ward, Asheboro street graded school building.

At said ward meetings each ward shall select two candidates for aldermen and one member of the city executive committee. A vote shall be taken in the ward meetings for candidates for mayor and said vote for mayor shall be sent to the general convention to be held in the court house on Friday night May 4th at 8:30 o'clock.

If any candidate for mayor shall receive a majority of the votes cast in the wards he shall be the nominee of the convention. If no candidate for Mayor receives a majority in the ward meetings, then the convention shall proceed to ballot for a candidate for mayor.

In order to avoid confusion, it is requested that each ward assemble in the court house in the portion which will be assigned to it and each have a chairman and two tellers.

C. H. Ireland,
Chairman.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a single attack since.—A. B. Parsons. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Mrs. Muggins—"I hear your entertainments in aid of the invalid aunts of English soldiers was a great success."

Mrs. Buggins—"Yes; we very nearly paid expenses."

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, rundown feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

It is a mistake to imagine that smokeless powder is new. It has been in use ever since women started to wear complexions.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

NOSE SPLITTING ESCAPE.

Mr. Fred Johnson Caught by a Telephone Wire.

Charlotte News.

Mr. Fred Johnson, son of Mr. G. S. Johnson came very near being killed day before yesterday. He has been flagging for several months on the Seaboard, between here and Rutherfordton. Monday he was on top of a freight when the train was speeding along toward Lincolnton. A telephone line had been run across the track, but not sufficiently high as Mr. Johnson learned. The train was going at the speed of 25 miles an hour. Mr. Johnson did not see the wire, and it caught him just under the nose, throwing him violently on the car. He would have fallen to the ground had he not caught hold of the running board and held on until the train could be stopped. His nose was split open and his lip badly torn. The doctor said if he had been caught under the chin he would have been killed.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

The late Silas P. Cobb, of Chicago, Ill., left an estate valued at $6,055,000.

FOR THE BABIES.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Miss Helen Gould has declined the invitation to attend the Dewey celebration at Chicago.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

Philip D. Armour, of Chicago, Ill., will practically retire from the management of his vast packing interests.

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. It's early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

SEVEN RUNNING SORES CURED

—BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

THE GREAT SPRING MEDICINE.

JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA as a Blood Food and Nerve Energizer, is the greatest SPRING MEDICINE ever discovered. It comes as a rich blessing from heaven to the "worn out," the run down, the overworked and debilitated. That "tired feeling," those "sinking spells," the languor and despondency which arise from badly nourished nerves, from thin, vitiated blood and an underfed body, vanish as if by a magic spell. The weariness, lassitude and nervous prostration which accompany the spring time and the heat of summer, are conquered and banished at once. For every form of neurasthenia, and all ailments of the brain and nerve, insomnia, hysteria and nervousness generally, it is almost a specific. It furnishes the very elements to rebuild worn-out nerve tissues. It feeds brain, nerve centers and nerves, calming and equalizing their action; it makes rich, red, honest blood. Newness of life, new hope, new strength follow its faithful use. It makes the weak strong, and the old young again.

It was the antiquated (but now happily exploded) method in the good old times, to treat Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Cancer and other troublesome disorders arising from BLOOD TAINT with powerful alteratives, such as mercury, arsenic and other mineral agents. It was expected by this treatment that the poison could be killed while the blood was left to course through its channels holding in its circulation the specific germs of the disease. But in this way, every part of the body became more or less diseased. Nothing can be more terrible than a horribly destructive blood taint. It not only attacks virulently the different structures of the body, but many times the bones are honey-combed and destroyed. It often seeks out the nerves and spinal cord, and again it will bring decay and death to some vital organ, as the kidneys, liver or stomach. There is only one scientific method for the cure of blood taint. That is, PURIFICATION! Every particle of the blood must be removed through the excretory channels, the lungs, kidneys, bowels, liver and skin. "First pure, then peaceable." The great restorative, reconstructive and vitalizer of the blood, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, not only radically and exhaustively removes the taint, but also removes all mercury, calomel and other mineral poisons. SARSAPARILLA, is universally regarded as the great blood purifier. This fact is now established beyond question or cavil.

BLOOD POISON CURED BY JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 13.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

SHORT NOTES.

Not Very Many Items Among Them night. Admission 35 cents.

Mr. S. A. Kerr has completed some striking signs for the Greensboro Steam Laundry. They are match boards for use in hotels.

We are informed that the "safe crackers" visited the postoffice at Mooresville, Iredell County, last night and relieved them of several hundred dollars in cash and stamps.

The social to have been given tonight by the Young People's Union of West Washington Street Baptist church has been postponed on account of the death of a member of the church. A new date will be announced later.

Mr. W. Henry Reid and Miss Ada M. Apperson, both of Surry county, were married at West Market church last night by Rev. J. C. Rowe, immediately after prayer meeting. It was an informal marriage and took the prayer meeting congregation by surprise.

Mrs. T. B. Donnell, who lived near McLeansville, died yesterday, a victim to consumption. She had been a sufferer for months but was patient and resigned. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev J. McL. Seabrook tomorrow at 12 o'clock and the remains laid to rest at Buffalo church cemetery.

Miss Dora Duty Jones' lecture before the Woman's Club in Richmond, attracted the most fashionable audience of the season to the Jefferson Hotel. Miss Jones' lecture tomorrow night at the Normal College on "Art and Life," the discourse being illustrated by magic lantern views of the pictures of George Frederick Watts. Admission 35 cents.

To Parts Unknown.

A. E. Horton, who has been employed for the past year by the Greensboro Telephone Company as lineman left the city Tuesday night for parts unknown, and it was rumored last night that he had failed to pay his board bill and many other debts, amounting to over one hundred dollars. A Telegram reporter called on Mrs. Burke, of the Planter's Hotel, this morning and was informed that his board bill which amounted to $16, had been unpaid and that she had no idea where he had gone. It is said that his home is in Lynchburg, Va., and it is thought that he has gone to that city. His many creditors are sorry to learn of his departure.

THE CARR-PATTON MARRIAGE.

IT WAS AN EVENT OF UNUSUAL MAGNIFICENCE.

The Meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias---The Next Meeting Will be in Greensboro.

Special to the Telegram.

Durham, N. C., April 26.—Colonel J. S. Carr's residence and grounds were a magnificent sight last night. The whole place was lighted in Pythian colors as a compliment to the order of Knights of Pythias on the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, Miss Lalla Ruth Carr, to Mr. William Foley Patton, of Pennsylvania. It was a scene of unequalled beauty and loveliness. Trinity church, where the ceremony was performed, was a scene of most charming grandeur. The few for the family was marked with bunches of lilies tied with white ribbon, with standards of lilies. In the vestibule was a canopy of green, with myriads of electric lights. The bridal party entered the church to the sweet strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Down the center aisle came Miss Adele Williams, of Richmond. At the same time, down either side aisle, came Mr. John F. Wiley and Mr. H. A. Foushee. These were followed in the same order as follows: Miss Laura Adair, of Atlanta; Dr. W. P. Few and Mr. W. W. Flowers; Miss Anna Turnbull, Mr. P. C. Sneed and Prof. Jerome Dowd; Miss Mabel Tomlinson, Mr. Julian S. Carr, Jr., and Mr. E. P. Carr; Miss Lizzie Morehead, Mr. John R. Carr and Mr. Marvin Carr; Miss Mattie Boynton, of Atlanta; Mr. Will Carr and Mr. Claiborn Carr.

After these, down the aisle to the right, came the maid of honor, Miss Honora Patton, of Curwensville, Pa., sister of the groom Following her was the bride with her father, Colonel J. S. Carr.

The men formed on the platform facing each other in two lines, extending from the minister to the steps and converging toward the minister. The bridesmaids stood just within these lines, facing each other.

From the pastor's study came the groom and his best man. Mr. Albert Kerr, of New York. These met the bride and her father just in front of the minister.

While the beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. C. Norman, pastor of the church, the organist rendered the Intermezzo from Caveleria Rusticana.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, in the reverse order to that in which they entered.

The bridesmaids wore beautiful gowns of batiste embroidery over white organdie; pale green ribbons at neck and waist, hair ornaments, white roses studded; they carried Easter lilies. Their costumes were the gift of the bride. Miss Patton, the maid of honor, wore a lovely gown of Cluny lace, made over chiffon and Paris de pin, a gift of the bride. The bride wore a magnificent white satin gown, with point lace yoke and sleeves, tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and an aigrette with diamond ; a necklace studded with pearls and pendant heart encrusted with pearls—the gift of the groom; she carried a handsome shower bouquet of white violets and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Carr, the bride's mother, wore a gown of superb imported black thread lace over Marie Antoinette petticoat of chiffon and Cluny lace, studded with turquoise; the bodice decollette, with Marie Antoinette sleeves profusely studded with turquoise; her jewels were diamonds, a magnificent diamond necklace with pendant, the gift of Mr. Carr for the occasion; hair ornaments, a diamond bird with aigrette. Mrs. H. C. Flower, sister of the bride, wore a lovely gown of white satin with tulle and silver paillets.

After the ceremony at the church an elaborate reception was given at Col. Carr's magnificent home, Somerset Villa. Sherry, the well known New York caterer served the supper, and its equal has rarely, if ever, been seen in North Carolina.

The bridal party were served in the sitting room. They were seated at an open table in the shape of a four-leaf clover. This was filled with bride roses and lilies of the valley The outside was draped with Valenciennes lace, intwined with gold lace.

When the bride left the supper room she dropped her imm nse bouquet over the banisters into the hall below. Upon falling to the floor, it separated into eight smaller bunches, one for each bridesmaid, the maid of honer, and Mrs. Carr.

The exquisite display of presents in the music room, amounting to a small fortune, attested the wide popularity of the bride and groom.

The souvenier wedding cake for the bridal party, containing the usual prophecies, was inclosed in boxes in the shape of two hearts joined together. On these, in beautiful monogram, were the letters, "P. C." The wedding cake for the guests were in white satin boxes.

Mr. Hugh Graham, of Philadelphia, was the decorator.

Numerous prominent and distinguished visitors were here to attend the marriage and reception.

The groom and bride will take an extensive bridal tour, after which they will be at home at "The Maples," Curvensville, Pa., after June 1st.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias has been in session here since Tuesday afternoon. It will complete its deliberations today. It has been one of the largest attended since the order was organized. The reports of the various departments of the order show that Pythianism is steadily on the up grade in North Carolina. Supr me Chancellor T. G. Sample was here yesterday and made an eloquent and inspiring address before the members of the Grand Lodge.

The folloniug officers were elected:

G. C.—G. W. Montcastle, Lodge No. 71, Lexington.

The next session of the Grand Lodge will be held in Greensboro next year.

"THE CITIZEN'S TICKET."

The Democratic Caucus Did Not Endorse Candidates as Rumored.

A rumor was current th's morning that there was a regular Democratic caucus last night and that four of the nominees of the Citizen's Ticket had been endorsed. A Telegram man called on Mayor Taylor and asked him if he could substantiate this report.

"There has been no Democratic caucus held. The Democratic party does not hold secret caucuses to endorse any one. You can state that there is not a word of truth in this report," said Mr. Taylor.

The reporter saw several of the nominees of the "Citizen's Ticket" this morning and asked them if they had decided as to whether they would allow their names to remain on the ticket. Those interviewed we quote:

Mr. H. J. Elam: "I published a card several days ago and do not care to say anything further."

Mr. Neil Ellington: "You might use the card that I gave to the Record day before yesterday."

Mr. J. Henry Phipps: "I have nothing to say. I have not had time to think the matter over."

Mr. J. A. Barringer: "I have nothing to say for publication."

The card to which Mr. Ellington refers was published Tuesday and read as follows:

"We are reliably informed that the convention called and held at the Court House last night, nominated us for membe s of the Board of Aldermen for the city. We appreciate this compliment and thank our friends and the convention for an expression of confidence of this kind.

For several years past a local Democratic organization has been maintained in connection with city nominations and e'ections, and we see from the papers this organization, through its proper officers, has called the primaries to meet Thursday night of next week, and while this organization is kept up we feel it our duty to conform to the action thereof; so our candidacy will depend upon the result of the primaries.

Most Respectfully,
Neil Ellington,
H. J. Elam."

The friends of the Citizen's ticket are claiming that this card is a point in their favor and that Messrs. Elam and Ellington will certainly remain on the ticket. But such a construction of [illegible] have declined the nominations and it is understood that there will be other vacancies on the ticket to fill in a few days.

Messrs. Spencer B. Adams, J. Y. Smith and M. C. Stewart have expressed their intentions of "sticking to the ticket"

Some of the friends of the nominees whom the reparter failed to find claim that they will not accept the nomination, while others claim that they will certainly remain on the ticket until the end.

The Democrats will hold their primaries on the night of May the third and select their nominees for Mayor and Aldermen, to be ratified at the general meeting on the night of May the fourth.

There was a meeting of some Democrats last night which, no doubt, gave rise to the rumor that there was a caucus.

The ticket now stands, without the names of the gentlemen who have "come down" themselves, as follows:

First Ward—J. H. Walsh, ——.
Second—J. B. Adams, J. E. Catlan.
Third—M. C. Stewart, ——.
Fourth—J. A. Barringer, ——.
Fifth—Jno. Y. Smith, E. L. Armentraut.
Sixth—J. Henry Phipps, ——.

OUR COMING CELEBRATION.

North Carolina Should Again Unite in Pledging "Our Lives, Our Property" etc.

Raleigh Post.

The coming Fourth of July celebration at the Guilford Battle Ground promises to be of unusual interest Judge Schenck, the devoted president of the Battle Ground Association, has been fortunate in securing the promise of Gen. H. V. Boynton, a distinguished veteran of the civil and equally distinguished as an orator, to deliver the address on that occasion. Gen. Joe Wheeler has also promised and hopes to be present.

With the President at Charlotte on the 20th of May to commemorate the first declaration to be free, and Generals Boynton and Wheeler at Greensboro on the Fourth of July to commemorate the occasion which made the accomplishment of that declaration possible, if not certain, the fires of liberty should certainly be fanned into a brighter glow than they have been wont to be of late years. The people of the State should unite in making both occasions memorable, and pledge anew "our lives, our property and our sacred honor" to the great principles which the patriots of old fought

Philadelphia, April 13, 1900. Messrs. Thacker & Brockman, Greensboro, N. C: Gentleman:—Your favor of 12th inst received and contents noted. In reply will state that the "St. Mark," carrying our China matting, has arrived, and been in port for several days. We are now shipping mattings and will be able to ship your goods tomorrow. We are glad to state that this cargo has turned out in first-class shape, and the mattings are fresh and desirable, and we have no doubt but what you will be very well pleased with the same. Regretting that they have been so late in arriving, and hoping for further orders from you, we remain, Yours truly, Albert Graff & Co.

We placed an order in December with the above firm for some two thousand yards of mattting, to be shipped February 1st, and have been very much disappointed at not getting it here long before this time. We have been promising our customers all along that it would soon arrive, and as the above letters show we have had good promises from the other end of the line. The entire lot finally came in this morning, and as the season is now already far advanced, we have priced this big lot of matting at extremely close margins in order to make it move off at a lively rate. There are about a dozen styles prices ranging from 12½c to 33c per yd. THACKER & BROCKMANN.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT.

Pretty Ceremony Near Holt's Chapel Church—The Contracting Parties.

Proximity Bureau.

There was a very pretty marriage at the home of Jas. H. Buchanan, the father of the bride, near Holt's Chapel church last night, Mr. Lee A. Jackson and Miss Roxie Buchanan being the contracting partics. There were a number of friends and relatives present to wish for them a long and happy life.

The bride was gracefully attired and carried a bouquet of beautiful flowers. After the ceremony was performed the company repaired to the dining room and there enjoyed a feast of good things. The dining room was tastily decorated for the occasion. After an hour spent in social concourse the company departed, wishing for the young couple much happiness. The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. L. Marsh pastor of Proximity M. E. Church.

The bride and groom are very popular in their community and have a host of friends that will ever be interested in their welfare.

BOERS FLEEING FROM WEPENER.

THE BRITISH ARE PRESSING FORWARD IN HOT PURSUIT.

French is in Dewetsdorp—Rumor of Baden-Powell's Death — Flogged Women and Sent Them Back

By Wire to the Telegram.

Dewetsdorp, April 25 (Wednesday).—The British columns are pressing forward in hot pursuit of the Boers, who are fleeing from Wepener and Dewetsdorp. The Boer line of retreat to Ladybrand leads through a broken, mountainous country, favoring concealment. Robert's line of communication is now thoroughly held.

FRENCH IN WEPENER.

Dewetsdorp, April 26.—French entered town this morning with two cavalry brigades. He left camp at daylight and found the Boers holding the hills, which were shelled. The Boers retreated and the cavalry pushed around the position above town, where they were holding Rundle in check. It is reported that six thousand Boers passed through town last night in order to avoid French's attack on their rear.

WHIPPED THE WOMEN.

London, April 26.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts:

"Bloemfontein, April 25. — Good news has been received from Baden-Powell to the tenth. All the wounded are improving. The Boers captured several native women trying to escape from Mafeking. They turned these women back after stripping and flogging them."

This dispatch fails to dispose of the report of Baden-Powell's death, the rumor of which was started that he was either dead or dying of fever on the twelfth.

EXPLOSION IN PRETORIA.

Ten Women Killed and Thirty-Three Other Persons Injured.

By wire to The Telegram.

Pretoria, April 26—There was a serious explosion at the Regbic works, used by the government as an arsenal last night. The walls of the building were destroyed and the structure burned. The shrieks of women and children in the adjoining streets added to the ghastliness of the scene. Ten women were killed and thirty-three persons injured, including Herr Grunberg, the manager of the works. The most important machinery was saved. The cause of the explosion is unknown. Two hundred people were employed, mostly French and Italians.

MRS. WORKMAN'S FUNERAL.

She Had Been a Member of the Church Since Her Thirteenth Year.

The funeral of Mrs. W. W. Workman took place this morning from West Washington Street Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Livingston Johnson and Dr. J. C. Rowe, and the body was laid to rest in Green Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Workman was in her 41st year at the time of her death. At the age of thirteen she professed religion, since which time she has been a faithful follower of Christ. In 1875 she was happily married to Mr. W. W. Workman. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Workman came to Greensboro from Roanoke, Virginia, and soon connected themselves with West Washington Street church. Mrs. Workman's health has been such for several years that she could not attend regularly upon the services of the church and this was her chief regret. Though confined at home she felt a keen interest in all the work of the church and rejoiced in its prosperity.

The last time she was away from home it was to attend the woman's prayermeeting. For three months she suffered intensely, but during the whole time not a murmur escaped her lips. She spoke freely of her condition, and expressed her entire willingness to go if it was the Lord's will to take her home. Her membership has been transferred to the church Triumphant.

WILL HEAR THE KENTUCKY CASE

POLITICIANS ARE GATHERING FOR NEXT MONDAY.

Senator Pritchard's Joke About the "Failure" of Pops And Republicans to Fuse.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, April 26—Kentucky politicians are beginning to gather in Washington already, in anticipation of the coming arguments before the Supreme Court of the United States over the Kentucky governorship. The arguments in the most notable political case which has attracted the attention of the Federal Courts since the days of the civil war will be heard on Monday, and will bring to Washington an array of prominent Kentucky men, of both political parties Among those in the city in addition to Governor Taylor and the attorneys of the contesting governor is Senator J. C. S. Blackburn. Both the governor and Senator Blackburn will remain in Washington until the arguments are heard. It is usual for the Supreme Court to announce decisions on Mondays, and it is felt that a decision in this important argument will in all probability be handed down on the Monday following the arguments, which will be the first Monday in May. Of course, the Kentucky situation being so important a one, the the Court may hand down its decision at almost any time after the arguments are concluded. Senator Blackburn stated that he would remain in Washington probably until after the final decision. It is believed that Governor Taylor and his attorneys will also remain.

Senator Blackburn is convinced that the decision of the Supreme Court will be favorable to Beckham, and bases his opinion largely upon the fact that in the state courts, the Republican judges, or many of them, sided with Democratic justices. The Supreme court will decide the case upon the logical aspects it presents, and not upon the equity rights of any individual or claimant.

Senator Pritchard, who has just returned from a visit to North Carolina, where he went to attend the session of the Federal Court, says that the failure to effect fusion between the Republicans and the Populists, will not injure but will benefit the Republican party of North Carolina. He looks for Republican success this year and for the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment.

The House committee on military affairs has reported favorably the bill to authorize the needed repairs of the graveled or macadamized road from the city of Newbern, North Carolina, to the national cemetery near said city.

On the Quay case the Virginia Senators divided, Daniel voting to seat Quay, and Martin against. Senator Butler voted against, while Pritchard has paired in favor of seating the Ex-Senator.

REV. MARRIOTT'S "DEFLECTION"

The Providence Baptist Church Sets Itself Straight

To the people of Greensboro:

As a committee appointed by Providence Baptist church to set forth our grievances at an article headed in one of our city papers—The Telegram, April 19th inst, "A Disturber Warned," referring to Rev. N. A. Marriott, former pastor of our church, find in said article the following: "It is understood that he is one of the disturbers who were run out of Wilmington in 1898. It leaked out here that he was attempting to organize the negroes for a stand against the white people in the coming election. His efforts were becoming manifest and he became so bold that he referred to his schemes in a prayer meeting service Wednesday night'" Rev. Marriott was not run out of Wilmington in 1898; because at that time he was pastor of our church, having been installed September 1898, two months before the Wilmington trouble in November 1898. And neither was Rev. Marriott at the prayer meeting on the Wednesday night referred to, nor did he ever to our personal knowledge make a political reference in any meeting, he never held in Providence church "for a stand against the white people in the coming election." We assure the white people of Greensboro that the members of Providence Baptist church believe wholly in the principle as set forth by said church i. e.: Each church is its own sovereign, and as individual members we believe in individual independence in politics, as in church polity, and exercise it.

Futhermore, the said Rev. Marriott nor any other man, minister or whatever he may be, or claim to be, could not induce us to unite ourselves against the white people of Greensboro and vicinity, for any such purpose Neither would we have allowed him to attempt any such thing in Greensboro, and especially in our house of divine worship. Now, as to Rev. Marriott, and his absconding from the city: After an impartial, deliberate and prayerful investigation, the members of Providence Baptist church, in special session assembled, were unanimously of the opinion that Rev. N. A. Marriott, the former pastor, for some reasons, best known to himself, and unknown to the church found it necessary to take an unceremonious and an immediate leave of the city of Greensboro, and in order that he might have an apparent excuse for so doing the church has good reasons for the belief that he wrote and addressed to his wife the anonymous letter of which he complained, and which he set up as the cause of his deflection from the church and city. Being of this opinion, the church found it necessary to declare her pastorate vacant—thus discharging Rev. N. A. Marriott as pastor. The church also ordered that the accounts be audited, and any amount found to be due Rev. N. A. Marriott, as pastor, be promptly paid him. The church extends its sympathy and prayers in behalf of her former pastor's wife and family. The church apologizes to the public for this intrusion of its internal matters upon it, by saying that it had been accused in connection with Rev. N. A. Marriott, the then pastor, of holding political meetings breathing conspiracy against the white citizens of Greensboro, which we denounce as untrue and impossible.

Done by order of the church, April 24th, 1900.

The Arch Destroyer.

"He is a mean, sneaking, underhanded element, the moth is," protests John Kendrick Bangs in The Woman's Home Companion. "Fire has a decent sense of the proprieties. Moths have none at all. When fire attacks you, it smokes and crackles and hisses and roars and lets you know in clarion tones that it has come. The moth steals upon you in the dead of night and chews up your best trousers, gorges himself upon your wife's furs, tickles his palate with your swellest flannel golf shirt, munches away upon your handsomest rug, punches holes in your best sofa cushions with his tusks and then silently folds his tent and steals away without so much as a thank you for his meal. For unmitigated meanness commend me to the moth! Alongside of the moth and his nefarious work even a book agent pales into insignificance and an unpaid grocer's bill becomes an absolute pleasure."

Our First Woman Editor.

According to the Hartford Courant, that paper in 1777 was owned and edited and managed by a woman, whose name comes down to modern days as "the Widow Watson." She had "exclusive charge" of the journal. After a couple of years Mrs. Watson married a leading citizen of Hartford, and after that date she no doubt let him advise and assist in the conduct of the paper. But she holds the record for the first woman editor in the country.

INDEPENDENT TICKETS.

The Telegram frankly states its regret that any number of our citizens should see fit to put out a municipal ticket in opposition to the regular nominees of the Democratic primary, whoever they may be. We think that such Democrats as are of the opinion that a movement of this kind will not hurt the party, will find that they have been mistaken.

The need for a party organization in the towns of North Carolina has been demonstrated in the past few years Under the old system of voting independently there were not near so good town governments in the State as there have been since. Why? Simply because the more responsible and substantial citizens divided their votes on personal preferences, while the element of the population that had some special scheme to work, or who were interested in having certain men in office, voted solidly and put in their men. We know of towns that were ruled by the worst element of their populations for this very reason, and it was only a few years ago, when the Democratic organizations were made, that the matter was improved. This is why, beside the undoubted fact that such opposition will hurt the Democratic party generally, in the present condition of North Carolina politics, that we are in principle opposed to independent tickets.

We congratulate Senator Pritchard on taking so cheerful a view of the failure of the Populists and Republicans to fuse.

Uncle Sam is now stirring round preparatory to begin taking the census for 1900. We understand by this that the last census has been completed.

There is a rumor in Constantinople that Russia will back Turkey if the United States undertakes to enforce the payment of that $90,000 award for missionary property. Of course Russia will do no such thing.

The country is safe. The Senate yesterday passed the agricultural bill carying $3,000,000, and refused to allow the supply of seeds to be cut down. Seeds are safe for at least another year. We are all playing in luck.

"Long centuries ago," says the Lexington Dispatch, "this country was discovered and populated by a race of white men. These sturdy old pioneers fought Indians on every valley. Step by step they made inroads upon the savage red man of the forest. Slowly, but surely, they pushed the savages back from one camping ground to another." This was an instance in which the "consent of the governed" could not be obtained. By the way, what became of the gentlemen who refused to be governed?

THE UNIVERSITY SUMMER WORK.

Important to Teachers and Those Wishing Instruction.

The seventh session will begin June 12th next and continue for four weeks. The faculty will include more than twenty eminent instructors. There will be daily instruction in the best methods of teaching all of the branches taught in the leading public and private schools, high schools and Academies in the south. Since its establishment six years ago, the University summer school has easily ranked with the best summer schools of the country. The advantages of this year will surpass those of former years.

ANOTHER FORWARD MOVEMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY.

This year for the first time in its history, the University will have a summer term and offer 20 regular University courses.

Many a teacher desiring to pursue an advanced course during his vacation, many a college student who wishes to carry on his studies during the summer months and thus hasten his graduation, and many men and women who can attend college or the University only during June, July and August will learn gladly of this new departure.

Members of the summer school during the four weeks it is in session, may attend the summer term classes free of charge.

A Hope That May be Realized.

Philadelphia Times.

The eyes of the nation are focused upon New York politics. The efforts of the Republican leaders to force Governor Roosevelt into the second place on the McKinley ticket possess far deeper significance than appears on the possibility of re-electing the gallant colonel. In other words, they believe him stronger in the nation than in the State.

There are many evidences to indicate the truto of this belief. Colonel Roosevelt was not overmastering elected. His name did not set the Empire State aglow with patriotism, as was expected. His career, at first satisfactory to the people, was unsatisfactory to to the boss of the State. Now the conditions are reversed, with a general sacrifice of public confidence. He has proved weak where he was assumed to be strongest. Prior to election every one would have sworn that, in the gubernatorial chair, Roosevelt would be his own master. His strong personality, his record as a police commissioner, his untiring energy as Assistant Secretary of the Navy encouraged this hope; but the State boss finally dominated him and destroyed his independence.

The Republican party of New York is by no means united on Roosevelt. There is a very strong anti Platt sentiment in the party that could be relied upon to support a thoroughly acceptable Democratic candidate, such for example, as Bird S. Coler. This young comptroller has shown the same ability and courage that Robert E. Pattison displayed in Philadelphia. Many signs already point to his availability as a democratic candidate, and against Governor Roosevelt or any other Republican his chances would be promising.

The newspapers have laid Mr. Rockefeller out for bossing his pastor, and removing him when he became too offensive. Many caustic lectures have been hurled at John D's head, but we are now informed that he has never been connected with either of the churches whose pastors have lost their jobs, but holds his membership with the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York City, whose pastor is too wise to say ugly things about the President of the Standard Oil Company. It is a pity to spoil this glorious opportunity to draw moral lessons, but we would better stick to facts even if a nabob goes free.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Cinn.

Is a genuine specific for diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. No other medicine has had so remarkable a success in curing diseases affecting the heart, liver and lungs, whenever these diseases, as is commonly the case, were caused by "weak stomach" and impure blood. Food imperfectly digested cannot be perfectly assimilated. "Golden Medical Discovery" restores the organs of digestion to perfect working order. Foul blood must result in a foul body. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and increases the activity of the blood-making glands, so increasing the quantity and quality of the blood supply. It has been tried by over half-a-million people. It has cured ninety-eight out of every hundred who have tried it.

Not Imitators!

White Delivery Wagons have been a distinguishing mark of the Greensboro Steam Laundry for a number of years. Our customers have learned to "look out for the white wagons."

Competitors have seen fit to imitate our wagons, therefore we deem it wise to make a change.

Our wagons are now in the shop. About May 1st they will come out green, our future color. In the mean time would respectfully request our friends and patrons to BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle. To avoid any possible confusion, in futurr our wagons will be lettered;

Cheese In Swiss Families.

The social rank of a family in Switzerland is estimated by the age of its cheese, and the greater the respect due to or the affection for a guest the older is the cheese set before him. There are in each pantry at least as many cheeses as there are boys and girls in the family, for at the birth of every child a cheese is made.

It is first cut into on his or her wedding day, on which festive occasion all the guests partake of a piece of the groom's and the bride's cheese in order to secure for them all earthly thrift and happiness. The rest is served as a token of friendly souvenir and heartfelt mourning after the tomb has closed over his or her earthly career.

Moreover, when a Swiss youth falls in love and wishes to pay court to the girl of his heart he goes to her father and asks permission to share the family dinner next Sunday. This is always granted if he is respectable, for it would be considered a deadly insult to refuse. The anxious question in his mind is, "Will papa bring out the cheese?"

Papa does not usually hurry to relieve his fears, having the family dignity in mind and wishing to proceed with due deliberation. If he is indeed satisfied with the suitor, he at length rises from his seat, goes solemnly to the cupboard, takes down the oldest piece of cheese, splits it and hands a piece to the youth and one to the maiden, and from the moment they have tasted it they are betrothed.

Both Had Been Out.

"The revenue cutters of the United States, as you may know," said an officer of one of them who likes his little joke, "confine their services, which are really invaluable to the government, to the coast, and it is a rare thing indeed for any one of them except those of the Bering sea patrol to venture any distance out to sea. Nor is this rule an unsatisfactory one, for, say what you please about it, sea service is not as pleasant as the novelists and other romancers would have you believe.

"But I am getting off of my story, which applies to the cutter Grant when she was doing duty in New York bay and vicinity. Something had happened to call her down the shore somewhere, and she left the bay one afternoon, and early the next morning, while she was bowling along at about seven knots an hour, she hailed a big four master.

"'What ship is that?' came the cry from the Grant.

"'The Royal Bengal Tiger, 243 days out from Calcutta,' came the reply. 'What ship is that?'

"'Revenue cutter Grant,' was the plaintive answer, 'and we've been out all night.'"—Washington Star.

A Bold Little Bird.

The honeybird is a well known denizen of many parts of the Transvaal. It has the unique peculiarity that it does not fear men and women, but actually flies up to them, uttering a plaintive low note and, flying about their heads, tries to lead them on to the nearest clump of rocks or kopje. The bird knows full well that under a certain rock lies a store of honey, concealed by the cunning bees, and, rock honey being as much esteemed by birds as by human beings, the clever little fellow tries to induce a friendly being with two strong hands to push aside the rock, so that it may get to the honey.

If it succeeds in its object and the traveler on the veldt, attracted by the bird's flutterings to and fro between himself and the rocks, finds the honey, the bird changes its plaintive tone to one of joy and pleasure, as much as to say, "Thank you very much."

Epitaphs In a Tyrolean Churchyard.

A German traveler has discovered some quaint epitaphs in a Tyrolean cemetery.

On a tombstone in the valley of Tux was this inscription, "In pious remembrance of the honest widow Anna Kriedl, 40 years long." A miller is thus remembered, "In Christian memory of ——, who departed this life without human assistance."

A farmer whose initials only are given and appears to have been the author of his own epitaph has this memorial: "Here rests in God F. K. He lived 26 years as man and 37 years as husband."

On the tomb of a man who fell from a roof and was killed are these words, "Here fell Jacob Hosenknopf from the roof into eternity."

This waif of a desolate husband caps the climax, "Tears cannot bring thee back to life, therefore I weep."

A Good Excuse.

"You wish to be relieved from jury duty, but you haven't given a good reason," said the judge.

"It's public spirit," said the unwilling juryman, "on the score of economy. I have dyspepsia, your honor, and I never agree with anybody. If I go on this jury, there'll be a disagreement, and the court will have to go to the expense of a new trial."

"Excused," said the judge.—Tit-Bits.

He Knows Her.

She was a Washington woman well acquainted in diplomatic circles. Talking about Washington people one day, some one asked her:

"Do you know Senator Blank?"

"Do I know Senator Blank?" she repeated. "Yes, I do know him, and he knows me. He will never forget me. I've trumped his ace when we were partners at whist."—New York Times.

Efficient Cavalrymen.

"Speaking of cavalry," said a veteran officer, "probably the hardiest and most effective cavalry forces the world ever saw were some of the Confederate squadrons in the civil war. Why, Forrest's troops harassing Sherman to the sea used up horses at the rate of 11 per man in a twelvemonth."—Indianapolis News.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington Pa., says, "I have found Ko-Do-l Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to cure. Howard Gardner.

Spring is being sprung upon us.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help: but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

A SUICIDE IN WILKES.

Took Laudanum and Rolled Off The Mountain—No Cause Assigned.

North Wilkesboro Hustler.

Oliver Moore, a well known and respected citizen of Hunting Creek neighborhood, comitted suicide Friday night.

He told his wife on Thursday evening that he was going to the "Big Rock," which is located on the mountain about a quarter of a mile from his house, and that she would find him there. As he had previously taken a quilt and other things to this place, she inferred that he proposed to hide there. No one had any idea that he contemplated ending his life.

The next morning his wife went to the place designated and was horrified to find him in an unconscious condition at the foot of the rock—about thirty feet. It seems that he had secured two bottles of laudanum. One was empty, but the other had not been uncorked. It seems that he had swallowed the contents of one bottle and either sprang or fell off the rock, as he was bruised in a frightful manner. She secured help and started home with him, but he expired before arriving.

It is not known why he committed the rash deed, as he was a most estimable citizen, and esteemed by all who knew him. We learn that he also preached occasionally.

He leaves a wife and several children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Democratic Primaries.

The Democrats of the city of Greensboro are hereby called to assemble in their ward mnetings on Thursday, May 3rd at 8:30 p. m, at the following places:

First ward, Farmers warehouse.
Second ward, Lindsey street graded school house.
Third ward, market house.
Fourth ward, Banner warehouse
Fifth ward, Ross building, 112 Lewis street.
Sixth ward, Asheboro street graded school building.

At said ward meetings each ward shall select two candidates for aldermen and one member of the city executive committee. A vote shall be taken in the ward meetings for candidates for mayor and said vote for mayor shall be sent to the general convention to be held in the court house on Friday night May 4th at 8:30 o'clock.

If any candidate for mayor shall receive a majority of the votes cast in the wards he shall be the nominee of the convention. If no candidate for Mayor receives a majority in the ward meetings, then the convention shall proceed to ballot for a candidate for mayor.

In order to avoid confusion, it is requested that each ward assemble in the court house in the portion which will be assigned to it and each have a chairman and two tellers.

C. H. Ireland,
Chairman.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a single attack since.—A. B. Parsons. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Mrs. Muggins—"I hear your entertainments in aid of the invalid aunts of English soldiers was a great success."

Mrs. Buggins—"Yes; we very nearly paid expenses."

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, rundown feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

It is a mistake to imagine that smokeless powder is new. It has been in use ever since women started to wear complexions.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

NOSE SPLITTING ESCAPE.

Mr. Fred Johnson Caught by a Telephone Wire.

Charlotte News.

Mr. Fred Johnson, son of Mr. G. S. Johnson came very near being killed day before yesterday. He has been flagging for several months on the Seaboard, between here and Rutherfordton. Monday he was on top of a freight when the train was speeding along toward Lincolnton. A telephone line had been run across the track, but not sufficiently high as Mr. Johnson learned. The train was going at the speed of 25 miles an hour. Mr. Johnson did not see the wire, and it caught him just under the nose, throwing him violently on the car. He would have fallen to the ground had he not caught hold of the running board and held on until the train could be stopped. His nose was split open and his lip badly torn. The doctor said if he had been caught under the chin he would have been killed.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

The late Silas P. Cobb, of Chicago, Ill., left an estate valued at $6,055,000.

FOR THE BABIES.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Miss Helen Gould has declined the invitation to attend the Dewey celebration at Chicago.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for yeasr by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

Philip D. Armour, of Chicago, Ill., will practically retire from the management of his vast packing interests.

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. It's early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a mortgage executed on the 7th day of May, 1890, by J. D. Rayborn and wife, Helen Rayborn, to Jno. A. Hodgin and A. F. Brooks, and duly recorded in Book 21, page — in the office of the Register of Deeds for Guilford county, we will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door, on Saturday, the 28th day of April, 1900, a certain lot or parcel of land in Greensboro, N. C., in Gilmer township, adjoining the lands of Mason, Hines and others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake, northwest corner of J. SEVEN RUNNING SORES CURED

—BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

THE GREAT SPRING MEDICINE.

JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA as a Blood Food and Nerve Energizer, is the greatest SPRING MEDICINE ever discovered. It comes as a rich blessing from heaven to the "worn out," the run down, the overworked and debilitated. That "tired feeling," those "sinking spells," the languor and despondency which arise from badly nourished nerves, from thin, vitiated blood and an underfed body, vanish as if by a magic spell. The weariness, lassitude and nervous prostration which accompany the spring-time and the heat of summer, are conquered and banished at once. For every form of neurasthenia, and all ailments of the brain and nerve, insomnia, hysteria and nervousness generally, it is almost a specific. It furnishes the very elements to rebuild worn-out nerve tissues. It feeds brain, nerve centers and nerves, calming and equalizing their action; it makes rich, red, honest blood. Newness of life, new hope, new strength follow its faithful use. It makes the weak strong, and the old young again.

It was the antiquated (but now happily exploded) method in the good old times, to treat Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Cancer and other troublesome disorders arising from BLOOD TAINT with powerful alteratives, such as mercury, arsenic and other mineral agents. It was expected by this treatment that the poison could be killed while the blood was left to course through its channels holding in its circulation the specific germs of the disease. But in this way, every part of the body became more or less diseased. Nothing can be more terrible than a horribly destructive blood taint. It not only attacks virulently the different structures of the body, but many times the bones are honey-combed and destroyed. It often seeks out the nerves and spinal cord, and again it will bring decay and death to some vital organ, as the kidneys, liver or stomach. There is only one scientific method for the cure of blood taint. That is, PURIFICATION! Every particle of the blood must be removed through the excretory channels, the lungs, kidneys, bowels, liver and skin. "First pure, then peaceable." The great restorative, reconstructive and vitalizer of the blood, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, not only radically and exhaustively removes the taint, but also removes all mercury, calomel and other minerals, and fills the veins and arteries with the ruby, glowing current of vitality. "The blood is the life." Good health means pure blood. The old and reliable remedy, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, is universally regarded as the greatest Blood Purifier ever discovered. This fact is now established beyond question or cavil.

BLOOD POISON CURED BY JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

SHORT NOTES.

Not Very Many Items Among Them Today.

Illustrated lecture on "Art and Life" at the Normal College tomorrow night. Admission 35 cents.

Mr. S. A. Kerr has completed some striking signs for the Greensboro Steam Laundry. They are match boards for use in hotels.

We are informed that the "safe crackers" visited the postoffice at Mooresville, Iredell County, last night and relieved them of several hundred dollars in cash and stamps.

The social to have been given tonight by the Young People's Union of West Washington Street Baptist church has been postponed on account of the death of a member of the church. A new date will be announced later.

Mr. W. Henry Reid and Miss Ada M. Apperson, both of Surry county, were married at West Market church last night by Rev. J. C. Rowe, immediately after prayer meeting. It was an informal marriage and took the prayer meeting congregation by surprise.

Mrs. T. B. Donnell, who lived near McLeansville, died yesterday, a victim to consumption. She had been a sufferer for months but was patient and resigned. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. McL. Seabrook tomorrow at 12 o'clock and the remains laid to rest at Buffalo church cemetery.

Miss Dora Duty Jones' lecture before the Woman's Club in Richmond, attracted the most fashionable audience of the season to the Jefferson Hotel. Miss Jones' lecture tomorrow night at the Normal College on "Art and Life," the discourse being illustrated by magic lantern views of the pictures of George Frederick Watts. Admission 35 cents.

To Parts Unknown.

A. E. Horton, who has been employed for the past year by the Greensboro Telephone Company as lineman left the city Tuesday night for parts unknown, and it was rumored last night that he had failed to pay his board bill and many other debts, amounting to over one hundred dollars. A Telegram reporter called on Mrs. Burke, of the Planter's Hotel, this morning and was informed that his board bill which amounted to $16, had been unpaid and that she had no idea where he had gone. It is said that his home is in Lynchburg, Va., and it is thought that he has gone to that city. His many creditors are sorry to learn of his departure.

THE CARR-PATTON MARRIAGE.

IT WAS AN EVENT OF UNUSUAL MAGNIFICENCE.

The Meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias---The Next Meeting Will be in Greensboro.

Special to the Telegram.

Durham, N. C., April 26.—Colonel J. S. Carr's residence and grounds were a magnificent sight last night. The whole place was lighted in Pythian colors as a compliment to the order of Knights of Pythias on the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, Miss Lalla Ruth Carr, to Mr. William Foley Patton, of Pennsylvania. It was a scene of unequalled beauty and loveliness. Trinity church, where the ceremony was performed, was a scene of most charming grandeur. The pew for the family was marked with bunches of lilies tied with white ribbon, with standards of lilies. In the vestibule was a canopy of green, with myriads of electric lights. The bridal party entered the church to the sweet strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Down the center aisle came Miss Adele Williams, of Richmond. At the same time, down either side aisle, came Mr. John F. Wiley and Mr. H. A. Foushee. These were followed in the same order as follows: Miss Laura Adair, of Atlanta; Dr. W. P. Few and Mr. W. W. Flowers; Miss Anna Turnbull, Mr. P. C. Sneed and Prof. Jerome Dowd; Miss Mabel Tomlinson, Mr. Julian S. Carr, Jr., and Mr. E. P. Carr; Miss Lizzie Morehead, Mr. John R. Carr and Mr. Marvin Carr; Miss Mattie Boynton, of Atlanta; Mr. Will Carr and Mr. Claiborn Carr.

After these, down the aisle to the right, came the maid of honor, Miss Honora Patton, of Curwensville, Pa., sister of the groom Following her was the bride with her father, Colonel J. S. Carr.

The men formed on the platform facing each other in two lines, extending from the minister to the steps and converging toward the minister. The bridesmaids stood just within these lines, facing each other.

From the pastor's study came the groom and his best man. Mr. Albert Kerr, of New York. These met the bride and her father just in front of the minister.

While the beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. C. Norman, pastor of the church, the organist rendered the Intermezzo from Caveleria Rusticana.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, in the reverse order to that in which they entered.

The bridesmaids wore beautiful gowns of batiste embroidery over white organdie; pale green ribbons at neck and waist, hair ornaments, white roses studded; they carried Easter lilies. Their costumes were the gift of the bride. Miss Patton, the maid of honor, wore a lovely gown of Cluny lace, made over chiffon and Peau de Soice; she carried a bouquet of fancy ferns, lilies of the valley, and orchids; she wore a handsome pearl horse-shoe pin, a gift of the bride. The bride wore a magnificent white satin gown, with point lace yoke and sleeves, tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and an aigrette with diamond ; a necklace studded with pearls and pendant heart encrusted with pearls—the gift of the groom; she carried a handsome shower bouquet of white violets and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Carr, the bride's mother, wore a gown of superb imported black thread lace over Marie Antoinette petticoat of chiffon and Cluny lace, studded with turquoise; the bodice decolletté, with Marie Antoinette sleeves profusely studded with turquoise; her jewels were diamonds; a magnificent diamond necklace with pendant, the gift of Mr. Carr for the occasion; hair ornaments, a diamond bird with aigrette. Mrs. H. C. Flower, sister of the bride, wore a lovely gown of white satin with tulle and silver paillets.

After the ceremony at the church an elaborate reception was given at Col. Carr's magnificent home, Somerset Villa. Sherry, the well known New York caterer served the supper, and its equal has rarely, if ever, been seen in North Carolina.

The bridal party were served in the sitting room. They were seated at an open table in the shape of a four-leaf clover. This was filled with brides roses and lilies of the valley The outside was draped with Valenciennes lace, intwined with gold lace.

When the bride left the supper room she dropped her immense bouquet over the banisters into the hall below. Upon falling to the floor, it separated into eight smaller bunches, one for each bridesmaid, the maid of honer, and Mrs. Carr.

The exquisite display of presents in the music room, amounting to a small fortune, attested the wide popularity of the bride and groom.

The souvenier wedding cake for the bridal party, containing the usual prophecies, was inclosed in boxes in the shape of two hearts joined together. On these, in beautiful monogram, were the letters, "P. C." The wedding cake for the guests were in white satin boxes.

Mr. Hugh Graham, of Philadelphia, was the decorator.

Numerous prominent and distinguished visitors were here to attend the marriage and reception.

The groom and bride will take an extensive bridal tour, after which they will be at home at "The Maples," Curvensville, Pa., after June 1st.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias has been in session here since Tuesday afternoon. It will complete its deliberations today. It has been one of the largest attended since the order was organized. The reports of the various departments of the order show that Pythianism is steadily on the up grade in North Carolina. Supreme Chancellor T. G. Sample was here yesterday and made an eloquent and inspiring address before the members of the Grand Lodge.

The folloniug officers were elected:

G. C.—G. W. Montcastle, Lodge No. 71, Lexington.

G. V. C.—L. P. McCloud, Lodge No. 32, Asheville.

G. P.—Rev. E. D. Brown, Lodge No. 86, Kinston.

G. K. R. S.—W. T. Hollowell, Goldsboro.

G. M. E.—John Ward, Raleigh.

G. M. A.—J. L. Scott, Jr., Lodge No. 92, Graham.

G. I G.—John L. Arrington, Lodge No. 84, Rocky Mount.

G. O. G.—B. Noos, Jr., Lodge No. 88, Pittsboro.

The next session of the Grand Lodge will be held in Greensboro next year.

"THE CITIZEN'S TICKET."

The Democratic Caucus Did Not Endorse Candidates as Rumored.

A rumor was current this morning that there was a regular Democratic caucus last night and that four of the nominees of the Citizen's Ticket had been endorsed. A Telegram man called on Mayor Taylor and asked him if he could substantiate this report.

"There has been no Democratic caucus held. The Democratic party does not hold secret caucuses to endorse any one. You can state that there is not a word of truth in this report," said Mr. Taylor.

The reporter saw several of the nominees of the "Citizen's Ticket" this morning and asked them if they had decided as to whether they would allow their names to remain on the ticket. Those interviewed we quote:

Mr. H. J. Elam: "I published a card several days ago and do not care to say anything further."

Mr. Neil Ellington: "You might use the card that I gave to the Record day before yesterday."

Mr J. Henry Phipps: "I have nothing to say. I have not had time to think the matter over."

Mr. J. A. Barringer: "I have nothing to say for publication."

The card to which Mr. Ellington refers was published Tuesday and read as follows:

"We are reliably informed that the convention called and held at the Court House last night, nominated us for members of the Board of Aldermen for the city. We appreciate this compliment and thank our friends and the convention for an expression of confidence of this kind.

For several years past a local Democratic organization has been maintained in connection with city nominations and elections, and we see from the papers this organization, through its proper officers, has called the primaries to meet Thursday night of next week, and while this organization is kept up we feel it our duty to conform to the action thereof; so our candidacy will depend upon the result of the primaries.

Most Respectfully,
Neil Ellington,
H. J. Elam."

The friends of the Citizen's ticket are claiming that this card is a point in their favor and that Messrs. Elam and Ellington will certainly remain on the ticket. But such a construction of their plain language is preposterous.

Mr. A. M. McAdoo and Mr. Will H. Matthews have declined the nominations and it is understood that there will be other vacancies on the ticket to fill in a few days.

Messrs. Spencer B. Adams, J. Y. Smith and M. C. Stewart have expressed their intentions of "sticking to the ticket"

Some of the friends of the nominees whom the reporter failed to find claim that they will not accept the nomination, while others claim that they will certainly remain on the ticket until the end.

The Democrats will hold their primaries on the night of May the third and select their nominees for Mayor and Aldermen, to be ratified at the general meeting on the night of May the fourth.

There was a meeting of some Democrats last night which, no doubt, gave rise to the rumor that there was a caucus.

The ticket now stands, without the names of the gentlemen who have "come down" themselves, as follows:

First Ward—J. H. Walsh, ——.
Second—J. B. Adams, J. E. Catlan.
Third—M. C. Stewart, ——.
Fourth—J. A. Barringer, ——.
Fifth—Jno. Y. Smith, E. L. Armentraut.
Sixth—J. Henry Phipps, ——.

THE GERMAN LAST NIGHT.

A Number of New and Pretty Figures Were Danced.

The german given last night by the new Crocail Club was a delightful affair and a brilliant success in every respect. Under the graceful and clever leadership of Mr. Alf. Galloway, of Reidsville, and Mr. Temp Horry a number of new and pretty figures were danced. The fair women were beautifully gowned, and seldom has the ball room presented a more attractive picture than it did last night between the hours of 9:30 and 2 o'clock.

The participants were: Miss Jones, of Illinois, and Dr. C. L. Scott; Miss Louise Holt and Mr. W. T. Powe; Miss Lizzie Leigh Dick and Mr. H. S. Bradley; Miss Balsley and Mr. Will McAdoo; Miss Lizzie Balsley and Mr. P. D. Stags: Lyn Williamson, of Graham; H. S. Shober, of Danville; Mr. Thompson, of Raleigh; "Monk" Bailey, of Winston; John Pannill, Alf. Galloway and Hugh Hubbard, of Reidsville; R. D. Douglas, June Scales and Rob Sloan.

The chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lindau, Mrs. W. D. McAdoo, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gayle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Williams, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Thompson, Mrs. Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holt.

OUR COMING CELEBRATION.

North Carolina Should Again Unite in Pledging "Our Lives, Our Property" etc.

Raleigh Post.

The coming Fourth of July celebration at the Guilford Battle Ground promises to be of unusual interest Judge Schenck, the devoted president of the Battle Ground Association, has been fortunate in securing the promise of Gen. H. V. Boynton, a distinguished veteran of the civil and equally distinguished as an orator, to deliver the address on that occasion. Gen. Joe Wheeler has also promised and hopes to be present.

With the President at Charlotte on the 20th of May to commemorate the first declaration to be free, and Generals Boynton and Wheeler at Greensboro on the Fourth of July to commemorate the occasion which made the accomplishment of that declaration possible, if not certain, the fires of liberty should certainly be fanned into a brighter glow than they have been wont to be of late years. The people of the State should unite in making both occasions memorable, and pledge anew "our lives, our property and our sacred honor" to the great principles which the patriots of old fought and died to establish

Shaw Bros. & Co. Open.

At No. 514 South Elm Street you will find one of the most up-to-date, thoroughly equipped grocery houses in the city. This is the new firm of Shaw Bros. & Co., which opened this morning. Mr. Chas. S. Shaw has been a trusted employee of J. W. Scott & Co. for a number of years, and the training he has received in this old reliable firm is alone a fine recommendation. Mr. J. H. Shaw, better known as "Bud," was also with this firm until about four years, since which time he has been traveling in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Philadelphia, March 15, 1900. Messrs. Thacker & Brockmann, Greensboro, N. C.: Gentleman:—We have your favor of the 14th inst., and in reply beg to say that the boat with the China mattings is now due, and we hope she will arrive now at any time. As soon as we get hold of the goods we will ship the same to you, and will give your order prompt attention. She was unexpectedly delayed by the United States government at Manila, and was late in sailing from Hong Kong Thanking you for kind favors, and assuring you of prompt attention to your order as soon as the goods are in sight. we remain
Yours truly, Albert Graff & Co.

Philadelphia, April 13, 1900. Messrs. Thacker & Brockman, Greensboro, N. C: Gentleman:—Your favor of 12th inst received and contents noted. In reply will state that the "St. Mark," carrying our China matting, has arrived, and been in port for several days. We are now shipping mattings and will be able to ship your goods tomorrow. We are glad to state that this cargo has turned out in first-class shape, and the mattings are fresh and desirable, and we have no doubt but what you will be very well pleased with the same. Regretting that they have been so late in arriving, and hoping for further orders from you, we remain,
Yours truly, Albert Graff & Co.

We placed an order in December with the above firm for some two thousand yards of mattting, to be shipped February 1st, and have been very much disappointed at not getting it here long before this time. We have been promising our customers all along that it would soon arrive, and as the above letters show we have had good promises from the other end of the line. The entire lot finally came in this morning, and as the season is now already far advanced, we have priced this big lot of matting at extremely close margins in order to make it move off at a libely rate. There are about a dozen styles prices ranging from 12½c to 33c per yd. THACKER & BROCKMANN.

Next to the Consumer is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
